Fly Away With Me 4

*I was crying in a world of white
You put a pencil in my hand
Draw what you feel you said and for a moment
The child in me could understand*

You said draw colours, draw what you feel Paint me some flowers, we'll pretend that they're real

*You miss your mother but I miss blue sky
So let's imagine a million butterflies*

*Fly away, away with me
Forget your tears
And fly away, away with me
We'll paint over our fears*

*I was hungry in a world of black
You put some paper in my hand
My worries slipped away and for a moment
I knew that you could understand*

My thoughts were shaky I pushed them away Drew a splash of colour in my world of grey

*I sketched my family
Drew what I wanted to be
And for a moment I was free to...*

*Fly away, away with me
Forget your tears
And fly away, away with me
We'll paint over our fears*

*A home of black and white, of cobbled grey
You showed us a new one
To wash the old away*

*And when you disappeared I'd close my eyes
But I'd never be alone cause me and the butterflies*

Fly away, away, away...
